John Kendrew Award
Information & Application Form 2017

The Award
The John Kendrew Award (JKA) has been created to honor EMBL’s first Director General. The award consists of a gold medal, a cash prize of €5,000, the logistical costs of bringing the winner to EMBL Heidelberg to present a talk at the Award Ceremony on EMBL Lab Day, and meetings with EMBL scientists of the winner’s choice. The award is given once per annum by the EMBL Alumni Association e.V. and is sponsored by Roland Specker.

The Achievement
The John Kendrew Award recognises excellence in science and / or science communication AFTER leaving EMBL.

Who Can Apply
Applications are open to all pre- and postdocs, 2-7 years AFTER leaving EMBL, who are registered members of the EMBL Alumni Association. If your application is unsuccessful in a given year, it can be resubmitted in subsequent years. We also welcome nominations for the award by any member of the EMBL community. Nominees will then be contacted by the EMBL Alumni Relations Office.

How to Apply
Applicants should complete and submit the application form together with the additional documents listed therein by 25th September 2016. Applications should be sent to the EMBL Alumni Relations Office either by email (alumni@embl.org) or by post to the address indicated in the footer.

The Selection Panel
The Selection Panel is composed of members of the EMBL Alumni Association.

Award Ceremony
Next year marks the 10th anniversary of the Award as well as Sir John Kendrew’s 100th Birthday - so quite a special year to celebrate! The John Kendrew Award ceremony will take place at EMBL, Heidelberg, on 21st July 2017.
